

ELLA

Tucked away in the misty Sri Lankan high country, amongst idyllic green hills and gushing waterfalls, lies Ella. Ella is a small town in the Badulla District of Uva Province. This small town has become a famous photographing spot due to the gorgeous, old-school design of the bridge and the surrounding green bushes and trees. Ravana Falls is a very popular site with both locals and foreigners stopping by to enjoy this piece of nature and a cool down in the water. Nine Arch Bridge, just outside the town (Demodara) is very famous for attracting visitors to Ella. Watching the train slowly make its way across the bridge is a wonderful sight. For those who seek spectacular views, the summit of Ella rock, with its views over Ella, Little Adam's Peak, and Ella Gap, is one vantage point you don't want to miss out on. Any how you will find these view almost everywhere you go in Ella. Diyaluma may be a little off the beaten track, but the epic views and natural infinity pools make the 1.5-2-hour journey more than worth the effort.

Diyaluma water falls may be a little off the beaten track, but the epic views and natural infinity pools make the 1.5-2-hour journey from Ella more than worth the effort.

The train trip from Ella to Kandy in Sri Lanka, or the other way around, is considered to be one of the most beautiful train trips in the world. This train ride is seven hours long and takes you through stunning landscapes of green and lush tea plantations and mountain views. The scenery is amazing, so make sure this ride is included in your travel itinerary.
